

my first day of school by Environmental Ant

When I had to get up early to go to school,
I felt crabby.

And on the bus
I was so nervous
I felt like I had butterflies in my stomach.

But when I got to KES I really liked my my teacher and I gave her a bear hug.

At lunch
I pigged out.

During recess
I monkeyed around with my friends.

What animals
did you feel like
today?
